

YOU'RE INVITED TO

CHOICES in Farming 2015

(888) 567-2101 x2234

Tuesday, February 10

Are you making the right choices:

Marketing Strategy

2014 Farm Bill

Precision Planting

What better business strategies will you choose to adopt in 2015? With January now behind us and the 2015 crop season just a few short months away, now is an excellent time to make plans to strengthen your farm business.

Our presenters offer up insights and strategies to help make you and your farm more competitive in the ever-evolving world of production agriculture.

The new year is sure to bring many obstacles, as well as opportunities. It's critical to position your farm to withstand the obstacles and take advantage of opportunities as they occur.
